

Scott Southwood – General Manager Marketing

Scott was appointed to the marketing role at Batchfire upon completion of the purchase of the mine from Anglo Coal in November 2016.

Scott has over 25 years of coal industry experience in Australian and international companies, and a history with the Callide mine that goes back to 1998, with Shell Coal.

Formerly the Marketing Manager for Ensham Resources, Scott also has experience as a technical specialist in resource evaluation, project due diligence and origination for various projects in countries including Australia, Mongolia and Russia.

Scott holds a Bachelor of Chemical Engineering from the University of Queensland.