

Will Saunders – Chief Financial Officer

Will has over 15 years' experience as a CFO, financial adviser, equity investor and sponsor across operating assets and greenfield projects.

In addition, Will's experience extends to financial planning and analysis, commercial, corporate finance and corporate development roles, including responsibilities for originating, structuring and executing opportunities in the mining, energy and infrastructure sectors.

Will has extensive experience in asset acquisitions and divestments, debt and equity capital raisings, including renewable energy project finance in roles advising Rio Tinto, Queensland Investment Corporation, Pacific Aluminium, NMDC Ltd and Bhushan Steel.

Will holds a Masters in Finance and Bachelor of Computer Science from the University of Sydney.